

Christmas at the Early Morning Market

Saturday, 19 December 2009

Over the last 5 years, since our Market Director started the idea, members from Lions Club of Titahi Bay have celebrated Christmas at the Early Morning Market on the Saturday just before Christmas Day itself.

The celebrations start off by some eager members coming early at midnight and decorating our Lions Caravan.

Stall holders are told the week before to dress up in their Christmas best so they can be in to win 1st, 2nd, or 3rd prize.

The best dressed boy at the market gets a prize, and so does the best dressed girl.

Lions don't miss out. The best dressed Lions get a prize also. 1st and 2nd prize. This year we had Jack Frost, dressed up like a real snowman (Lion Janette) and the traditional Santa costume (Lion Kaisa)

Stall holders who are regular to the market over the year are given Christmas presents from the Lions club

Lollies and balloons were handed out over the morning to both stall holders and customers.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all, from Lions Club of Titahi Bay
