thanks norm.
