

Congratulations to Dhys Faleafaga who received the Leilani Read Memorial Trophy supported and presented by Titahi Bay Lions.

Winner of the Young sportswoman of the year category

<https://terauparaha-arena.co.nz/events/porirua-sports-awards-2019-finalists/>

Porirua Sports Awards 2019 Finalists

The finalists have been named for the 50th anniversary of the Porirua Sports Awards

Congratulations to the finalists who have been announced for the 50th anniversary of the Porirua Sports Awards.

Coach of the year

Alan Taylor (athletics)

Deslee Wrathall (basketball)

Helen Brookes (Special Olympics basketball)

Disabled Sportsperson of the year

Damian Johanson (Special Olympics football)

Johan Gouws (d-sport wheelchair rugby)

Wilson Stock (Special Olympics basketball)

Service to sport

Eileen Adams (swimming)

Mark O'Connor (swimming/bowls)

Mike Parker (rugby)

Sportsman of the year

Callum McCowatt (football)

Daniel Hillier (golf)

Jordan Ngatai (basketball)

Sportswoman of the year

Letava Whippy (basketball)

Liana Findlater (surf lifesaving)

Sanita Levave (rugby)

Team of the year

Judgeford Golf Premier Team

Matt Archer & Glenn Muirhead (kayak)

Norths Rugby 7s & Premier teams

Western Suburbs Central League Football team

Volunteer of the year

Brian Grace (kayak)

Damian Parker (boxing)

Neil Snowling (football)

Young sportsman of the year

Ben Gold (basketball)

Dylan Ball (Moto X)

Jayden Ford (golf)

Young sportswoman of the year

Dhys Faleafaga (rugby)

Neve Sissons (kayak)

Tesara-Rose Faleafaga (handball/basketball/netball)